My brothers and sisters as you gather around the Thanksgiving table, I hope that you and your family take a moment to reflect upon what you're especially grateful for in your live this year, while there have been many challenges for us, as well as the entire world over the past year and a half, God is still good! Once again we are reminded of the fragility of life and that we should do our best to value our loved ones and those around us. From the Priests and Staff of St. Thomas Aquinas. Happy Thanksgiving.

The death of a loved one can be the most stressful event in a person's life. A wide array of emotions can be experienced, such as sadness, anger, anxiety, guilt, and despair. There is no right way and wrong way to grieve. Each person experiences grief in his or her own way, partly because of the relationship with the person who died. St Thomas invites you to our Bereavement Meeting. For the month of November the group will on Tuesday November 23rd at 7:30pm.
